

AT THE HELLENIC CENTER

2025 INVESTMENT GUIDE

FLORIANA

This pristine historical estate was known as The Mansion at the Hellenic Center.

We are now proudly known as Floriana.

Our decision to embrace this new name is rooted in the rich history of our 100-year-old Georgian-style mansion. The estate was named Floriana by its original owner, Anna P. Peabody in 1903, and this change symbolizes the deep connection we have with the property's storied past.

The exquisite mansion will set the tone for your magical wedding day. Boasting plenty of privacy, the mansion sits at the end of a long, private drive that guides you into a beautifully landscaped setting, a perfect backdrop for your wedding or event. The sprawling lawn is a picturesque background for an outdoor ceremony, cocktail hour, and/or tented reception.

OUR VENUE

Our elegantly appointed ballroom or seasonal Tidewater sailcloth tent will seat up to 200 of your guests for dinner with ample room for dancing. The Mansion features historic architectural details, gleaming hardwood floors, crystal chandeliers, three fireplaces, and French doors which overlook the gardens. A grand stairway leads you to the stylishly furnished hospitality suites with private bathrooms and plenty of seating room for you and your wedding party. Floriana can be the future home of your dream wedding. Our unsurpassed personal attention will assure you the day you have envisioned and will remember for years to come.
